

H-GAC Regional Goods Movement Study

Project Description

The Houston-Galveston Area Council (H-GAC) commissioned Cambridge Systematics (CS) to conduct a Regional Goods Movement Study to help better understand freight and goods movement issues and develop more appropriate transportation policies to support the economic needs of the H-GAC Study Area. The Study Area encompasses eight (8) counties, which include: Brazoria, Chambers, Fort Bend, Galveston, Harris, Liberty, Montgomery and Waller Counties. Knudson provided services related to public/elected official outreach, GIS Services and general planning services.
